

Critical Thinking Exercise

I have assigned you a chapter or chapters in Paulos' A Mathematician Reads the Newspaper on which you will lead a discussion at the beginning of class.

You begin with a summary of the chapter(s) and convey succinctly and completely what considering Paulos' offerings has contributed to your ability to analyze phenomena more completely. A top quality discussion will incorporate examples not specifically mentioned in the chapter(s).